Dear Joan,

It is my pleasure to introduce Adele Azar, a friend, a colleague and a fellow traveler on the road to full aliveness and conscious living. I have worked with Adele for many years and on many fronts. She is a profound advocate for embracing the relationship we have with money and making that partnership the sacred adventure it can be. She has an uncanny and wonderful way of presenting this material which is so close to her heart. She has compiled years of research into Money As Sacrament, her fascinating new book which truly is a blessing for all women.

Adele is a riveting speaker and a joy to listen to. She invites vibrant audience participation as she showers her audience with fresh ideas that are, believe me, very original. She is an inspiring presenter who takes you by the hand with gentleness, intelligence, wisdom, firmness and humor, and then forever changes your relationship with money. She opens up new ways of thinking and feeling. You become aware that your childhood story and the familiar climate of your past significantly impact how you handle your money today. You enter a whole new paradigm where money receives its rightful place among all of the sacred elements forming our lives. I have been fortunate enough to listen to Adele's ideas and I am always moved by her passion.

I highly recommend Adele as a keynote speaker who motivates, inspires and affirms life at its fullest, and I'm convinced that she would add much spiritual health to this year's Speaking of Women's Health.

Sincerely,

Hedy Schleifer
